Southern Crescent Sexual Assault and Child Advocacy Center, a Vital Community Service

Thank you to Gayla Nobles and her staff for hosting the club at The Southern Crescent Sexual Assault and Child Advocacy Center in Hampton GA. Gayla, founder and executive director gave us a brief history of the center which originally started as a Crisis Hotline and grew from there. The center has grown and evolved ... [more]

Getting to know our GRSP Student, Sheena Gunawan

Thank you to our GRSP student, Sheena Gunawan for delivering a detailed presentation regarding her home country of Indonesia during this week's luncheon. We learned so much about her home country including its leadership, food, and famous places. Sheena also shared a little about herself with us including ... [more]

Local Author, Has Broder Shares His Stories with Us

Thanks to local author, Hans Broder for sharing his books with us during Mondays meeting. Lots of History with a touch of fiction and McDonough sure has some rich history worth reading about. If you haven't heard the details of the horrific McDonough train wreck known to be the worst of its time in the ... [more]
